The Cherry Tree Restaurant

Spring is here, and now that the weather is warmer, there is no question as to where to go out for dinner. The Cherry Tree is a seasonal restaurant, closed from December through February when the weather does not permit outdoor seating. This is because the Cherry Tree is roofless! The layout of the restaurant, situated at the top of Orchard Hill, consists of an expansive, shaded deck and an attached indoor kitchen. Diners enjoy their meals while looking out over the valley.

Martin Tuller, head chef at the Cherry Tree, says that he goes to the open market at the port every day at 7 a.m. to purchase his ingredients. "I want to make sure I get the freshest poultry, fish, meats, produce, and herbs. The only way to get the best of the best, is to get there first," says Tuller. That's why Tuller is up at 5 a.m. every morning despite working in his kitchen until 10:00 at night. Tuller commented with a smile, "It's a lot of hard work, but it's work I love."

Visitors to the Cherry Tree who like spicy food should be sure to try the swordfish served with olive brochette. Main courses range from 15 to 30 dollars and are all prepared to perfection. Now is the time to make a reservation. Don't miss out on this culinary treat!

The Cherry Tree is located at 223 Orchard Road.

24. What is NOT mentioned as something Mr. Tuller buys at the port?
