Questions 162-164 refer to the following article.

MILAN, Italy-Few industries change as rapidly as the fashion industry, in which designers are constantly trying to create innovative versions of traditional garments. Even so, last week's fashion show in Milan was particularly notable for the vast number of garments made partly or entirely out of silk. From eveningwear to sportswear, many designers featured colorful silks in their collections. The designers were likely responding to a market trend: a dramatically increased demand for colorful silk products. "Our sales	of silk shirts and dresses have reached an all-time high," said Christina Alvarez, a buyer for Gatsby's in London. "Silk items have been flying off the racks." Economic analysts were surprised by the trend, since they had predicted that the rise of dry-cleaning costs would take a toll on silk manufacturers. However, comfort may have been a greater factor than price, especially given the unusually hot weather this past summer. "Today's silk garments," said Ms. Alvarez, "are lighter and cooler than many other types of clothing."
162 What does the article discuss? Ⓐ A growing demand for Italian dress designs Ⓑ An increase in the number of fashion shows each year Ⓒ A rise in the popularity of a certain clothing material Ⓓ A change in the cost of products made in England	164 According to the article, what is the reason for the market trend? Ⓐ More colorful advertisements Ⓑ Improved cleaning techniques Ⓒ Warm weather conditions Ⓓ New manufacturing practices
163 Where does Ms. Alvarez most likely work? Ⓐ At a department store Ⓑ At a marketing agency Ⓒ At a fashion magazine Ⓓ At an economic consulting firm

Dear Customer Service,
On February 15 I ordered a Classic Shirt, product number SC-30, which I received on February 20. After trying it on, I realized that the shirt is too large for me, so I would like to exchange it for a size medium shirt. However, my work requires that I move abroad for an extended period of time; I am scheduled to leave on the evening on February 27. I sent the shirt to you by regular mail today. Will my exchange be processed in time for me to receive the new shirt at my current address? If not, would I be required to pay additional charges for having the shirt sent to my new location in Paris, France? In that case, I would like to request a refund.
Thank you for your help.
